

STILLWAGON IDENTIFIED.

Mr. Bayar and Peileman Stewart have it
One of their Assistants.

Justice Delahanty's court room at Long Island City was crowded yesterday with the friends of George Stillwagon, Robert Schuyler, John Alexander, Charles Biscis, William Wynn, and John T. Wynn, the young man who were accused of robbing and assaulting Lawrence Bayar and his family, and of assaulting Policeman Stewart on a train of the Woodhaven and Rockaway Railroad. Neither of the Wynns was recognized by either Mr. Bayar or Policeman Stewart as being on the train. At the request of Mr. W. J. Foster, who appeared on behalf of the railroad and the people, the Wynns were honorably discharged. Alexander, Biscis, and Schuyler, who were remanded for examination on Friday morning, next, showed when leaving the court room that they were innocent, and that they were too poor to have a lawyer to appear for them, and that they couldn't afford to wait in jail. They were partly pushed and partly led out of the room. In the rear of the court room, in the rear of the House they were surrounded by friends, who gave them money.

The examination in the case of Stillwagon was held. Mr. Bayar and Policeman Stewart related the particulars of the assault and robbery as published in TODAY'S SUN, and positively declared that the two Wynns were innocent. Stillwagon had hit him but one of his hands into Bayar's inside vest pocket and drew out $50. Mr. Bayar stated the prisoners had been remanded to the rear of the courtroom if he saw her. She was not in the court room. Justice Delahanty held Stillwagon without bail awaiting the trial of the grand jury.

Stillwagon, a member of the New York Woodhaven and Rockaway Railroad Company, was present at the examination, and said he had nothing to do with the two men who committed the assault and robbery but the utmost penalty.

Monster Picnic of the Erie Conductors.

JENKINS, Aug. 22.—The day before all the conductors of the Erie, the Hudson River, and the Lake and Waterway Railways, and the conductors of the New York, Lake Erie and Waterway. Their annual chancery is looked forward to as a time for general jollification, and has more than local celebrity. Last year they were unable to feed the large crowd that gathered, and they promised that all would be done to make up for it. This year they will have a greatly increased supply, as follows: 10,000 cans, 2,000 bars of sweet corn, 200 pounds of chicken, 1,000 pounds of ham, 1,000 pounds of bacon, 1,000 pounds of beans, 1,000 loaves of bread, and other supplies in proportion. The picnic will be held on the Grand Jury, between 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 21st inst., at the Lake Erie and Waterway station of Erie Dispatchers. The Lake Erie and Waterway is under the charge of Erie Dispatchers also. The picnic will be held on the 21st inst., at the Lake Erie and Waterway station of Erie Dispatchers. The picnic will be over the supply of supplies can eat.

Three Cars Breaking Through a Trestle.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 22.—The west-bound passenger train on the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad, which left here at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon with an accident, has broken through a trestle at Forest City. While crossing a short stretch of broken rail, caused two second-class passenger coaches and the baggage express car to go through the running board. J. A. Jackson, a black man, formerly foreman of pile drivers of the Lake Erie and Waterway Railroad, and the conductor of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, had his leg broken. Several other passengers received injuries.

The Head Money Case.

NEWPORT, Aug. 22.—Justice Blatchford today continued the hearing in the case of the steamship companies of New York against the government for the recovery of the head money paid by these passengers under protest. District Attorney Tandy Tammart argued that the suit was in effect, and that the government has the right, to impose taxes or burdens upon commerce, especially in this case, as the tax was imposed on the head money paid to the government. They urged also that there is no merit in the claim of the companies that the tax contravenes the terms of the treaty between the United States and Great Britain.

Rocky Mountain Tourist.

TORONTO, Aug. 22.—The director of the Canadian Pacific Railroad Company arrived here by a special train on the Grand Trunk, accompanied by forty capitalists belonging to this continent and Europe, for a trip over the Canadian Pacific road. Among the party are Prince Hobartson and brother, Vice-Admiral Lord Milner, Earl of Kimberley, Sir Edward Ellice, Castleton, and Elouise of England, a number of English members of Parliament, as well as representatives of the Canadian Government. The distinguished tourists will go to the Rocky Mountains and return in three weeks.

A Guide Wedding.

ROGERS' ROCK, N. Y., Aug. 22.—The event of the day here has been the golden wedding of Hon. and Mrs. Jonathan Ogden of Brooklyn, who are spending the summer here. Their children and grandchildren, and the wife of the son, the Rev. Dr. Jonathan Ogden, the Rev. Dr. St. Lawrence, and elsewhere to attend the festivities. The marriage was dissolved to an outdoor service in the afternoon and a reception and dinner to follow in the evening.

Chinaman Hanged for Murder.

YANKEE, Aug. 22.—News has been received of the legal execution of Ah Yen, a Chinaman, who was found guilty of the murder of another Chinaman on Jan. 20. His protest of his innocence to the last, but met his fate with a stoic and undemonstrated spirit. Several hundred persons were present with permission of the sheriff. Some relatives were present.
